Dear Mr. Davidson,

I stay so busy, what xhx with the obligations of a publisher and the requirements of a writer, that unless I answer letters, no matter how inadequately, when they arrived, they do not get answered or I get snowed under.

I'm looking forward to what you sent separately. I found the clippings interesting, as was your letter.

The TV show, alas, eliminated my address. Had they given it, your prediction would have been true by now. I know from before.

I do not believe nor have I suggested LBJ had anything to do with it. I do not believe the President's escort were anything less than the bravest and most dedicated. I thought I said this. I do, publicly, for the editing of the Altgens picture leaves them indicted in history because it leaves the inference unanswered. As a matter of fact, a member of the family of one has approached me after one of my speeches with thanks.

I have not yet recaptured my financial skin, despite the success of WHITEWASH. Books are a crazy business. Wholesalers dispense with banks!

Perhaps some of what is on your mind will be answered when you see WHITEWASH II, for which we are already getting orders. It should not be too long in coming out.

Sincerely,
